Site:

Following an extensive renovation in 2007, that has won praise from both locals and visitors alike, the newly transformed Commodore Hotel Linden offers travelers the ultimate modern hotel experience, with welcoming ambience, contemporary appointments and personalized amenities of an intimate yet luxurious hotel. However, the two story property, originally built in 1939, retains much of the original character such as high ceilings, exposed brick walls, hardwood floors, and a grand lobby. The hotel is conveniently located near all of the areas main attractions including the scenic Tennessee and Buffalo Rivers, several local wineries, Mennonite farms and arts and craft community.

Opening Date:

September 21, 2007

Suites and Guestrooms:

The Commodore Hotel Linden offers 10 newly renovated spacious guestrooms and 2 elegant suites. Guestroom style reflects a balance of urban sophistication and historical charm, with a palette of warm earth-tone colors. All rooms have high-speed Internet access, comfortable queen-ann style leather chairs and cable television. The Commodores Quarters has an exposed brick wall, and over-sized bathroom complete with a corner Jacuzzi to provide relaxation and comfort.

Lobby:

Our lobby is the perfect place for our guests to congregate with high-back leather chairs, plush sofa, and working fireplace. The room is further appointed with large crown moldings, and a large antique mirror over the fireplace mantle. In addition the walls of the lobby are decorated with portraits of movie stars from the 1940's, like Clark Gable, Greta Garbo, Judy Garland ect...and covers and adds from 1939 editions of Saturday Evening Post, the year the Hotel was originally constructed.

Restaurant:

Located off the main lobby, the Commodore Cafe has high backed seats with plush cushions, elegant tables and rich, dark woods which are all part of the warm, classic setting. Specialties include fresh hand-cut meats, fish and vegetables, which are exclusive prime quality and cooked to order with traditional country goodness or unique "big-city" flavor. Fresh baked rolls and desserts are quickly becoming local favorites. The servers deliver a generous dose of warm hospitality to every honored guest. It's a one-of-a-kind local experience. With live music every weekend, the Commodore is quickly becoming the place of choice for live music for relaxing while dining. The musical offering is a quality professional presentation of country, classical, pop, jazz, or blues, smooth and easy mood music that will move you in many directions. A number of nationally and internationally known touring artist/musicians who have recently appeared.
